PRESIDENT WILL RECEIVE "ANTIS"

Reception at White House Is Planned for Workers Against Suffrage.

BITTER FIGHT COMING

Two Sides Will Wage Struggle at Both Capitol and Executive Mansion During Coming Winter.

The anti-suffragists don't intend to let the suffragists slip one over on them. When they learned that President Wilson was going to receive the suffragists, they got busy with arrangements for the reception at the White House of the 'untis." President Wilson is a suffragist himself, but he just hates to disappoint anyone, so yesterday be announced be would receive the "antis" in the Execu-tive Offices at 10 o'clock on the morning request for the reception was made The request for the reception was made by Mrs. Arthur M. Dedge. of New York, president of the National Association Op-posed to Woman Suffrage, which will hold its annual meeting here Decem-

Although the President voted for wom-n suffrage in New Jersey and advocates s being adopted by the states whose want it, it is the intention of fragists to thank him for the poanti-sulfragues to the state against Congress providing for a constitutional amendment that will give the franchise to women throughout the country.

"Antis" to Fight Harder.

The visit of the anti-suffragists to the White House is in line with their an-nounced policy to put up a bigger fight against the suffragists before the coming of Congress than has ever been session of Congress than has ever been the case before. It means the two camps will be engaged in a winter-long cam-paign here, one to secure the adoption of the constitutional amendment, the other to prevent it.

Both suffragists and anti-suffragists will be represented before the Democratic and Republican national committees, which meet here December 7 to 14, respectively. Three hundred representatives of the Congressional Union, one of the leading suffrage organizations, will be received by the President December 6. Thus, the battle between the women will be taken to both the Capitol and the White House.

White House.

The National Association Opposed to Woman Sufrage will meet here for the purpose of electing officers, the submission of annual reports and a detailed outlining of the work to be done in Washington during the coming session of Congress. The meeting will be attended by delegates from more than twenty states. Or particular interest is the announced intention of the anti-suffragists of New Jersey, the President's home State, to charter a special train for the trip to Washington

TRAFFIC BARRED FROM STREET PLAYGROUNDS

Maj. Pullman and School Authorities Arrange for Them and They'll Be Opened in Few Days.

Playgrounds in the streets for school children, with immunity from traffic dis-turbance, will be an innovation to be in-augurated in the public schools of Wash-

Berlin, Nov. 22, (by wireless via Say-ville).—"News of the Anglo-French blockade of the Greek coast surprised nobody," says the Overseas News Agency today. "This act of violence against a small neutral country, intend-ment in an effort to find the person who to stay really neutral without con-

So much more

ous box it is -20 ounces of goodness! Think how many times

Try it tomorrow. Like thousands of other housekeepe you will say that there is no other way to serve, for such a trifling cost, such a popular and delicious dish.

Aunt Jemima's

you could give your family this treat.

WITH THE BRITISH NORTHEAST BORDER COLUMN

OMTERNATIONAL FILM SERVICE

The Northeast Border Column was organized in Southern Rhodesia last August and left Salisbury to re-enforce the North Rhodesian Rifles. The route followed was from Salisbury to Broken Hill by train and thence across country to somewhere in the neighborhood of Lake Tanganyika. Since horses and cattle cannot live in the country traversed in the march on account of the tsetse fly, all stores and baggage had to be carried by natives.

LOCAL REALTY MEN TO FETE NATIONAL BODY

Washington Brokers Will Entertain Executive Committee of Association in January.

The Association of Real Estate Brokers of the District held its November meeting yesterday at a luncheon in the New Ebbitt. George Y. Worthington, president of the association, presided. The meeting was well attended.

The president was authorized to apfor an entertainment to be given late in January to the executive committee of the National Association of Real Estate Exchanges, of which the local organizaion is a member. The meeting of the national executive committee will be an annual affair and is considered of con-siderable importance by members of the ody.

The organization acted favorably upon The organization acted favorably upon a referendum from the national executive committee authorizing the national organization to change its name to the National Association of Real Estate Boards. It further authorized its own armed guards on the estates of multi-millionaires around Tarrytown were re-doubled. The great estate of John D. Rockefeller is near that of Mr. Arch-placed a dynamite bomb in the driveway ing to stay really health with the prac-living, is in conformity with the prac-tices of the entente powers toward small nations where the question of neutrality man who was seen prowling about the Archbold estate delicious!

The next time you want

Aunt Jemima's is the one paucake

flour that has milk already mixed in it. That to serve something espe-cially nice, have Aunt is why the flavor of Aunt

Iemima's Pancakes is so different - so much more

A trifling cost

Jemima's Pancake Flour.

Notice what a big, gener-

Order a package of Aunt

(Copyright, 1915, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

HOW I SURPRISED MY MOTHER.

away out West who has taken and the smaller for fifteen, me into her confidence reminds me of something I did to please have no clothes with you," How Jack Prevailed.

"Can't you loan me a nightgown for tonight," Jack whimpered, "and buy me some clothes in Chicago?"

I refused, and he began to cry. mamma, whose heart is so soft, began to take his side. "Poor little fellow." she said. "Take him with you." I said I would not. Then a gentleman who was with us said he would give Jack half his berth. I still refused, for I thought he would be a great care. I kissed mamma and Jack southy. ma and Jack goodby, and got on the train. Just as it was starting mamma gave a push, and pushed Jack on with me, and I had to take him. I was glad afterward, for, though he didn't earn much, he helped me with my surprise. He used to make five dollars a day every once in a while, and he gave all his money to me. I carned money to other ways than acting that season. I wrote scenarion, and when one day Jack and I took a scenario to the Biograph company and it was refused. I felt rather disheartened. Then Jack and I put our heads together. As a result we rode out to where the Selig company had a studio, and I disposed of two scenarios for forty

J. HARRY CUNNINGHAM TRADE BODY SECRETARY

Head of Engraving Company Elected Successor of C. J. Gockeler. Others Re-elected.

Edwin C. Brandenburg, president of the Washington Board of Trade was re-elected to that office yesterday by the executive committee of the organization. The committee's meeting was the first of the new fiscal year of the board, the year beginning with the close of the annual meeting last Monday. Officers of the organization must be elected within ceek of the annual meeting, in accordance with the by-laws.

Other officers were re-elected with the exception of the secretary. J. Harry Cunningham, vice president of the Lan-nostrils open right up, the air passages of your head are clear and you can breathe freely. No more hawking, snuffling, mucous discharge, headache, dryness-no struggling for breath at night, your cold or catarrh is gone.

Don't stay stuffed up! Get a small

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS.

A young man writing from Tacoma wants to know the color of my eyes. They are hazel. I hope the reply does mary Michford.

NOSE CLOGGED FROM

A COLD OR CATARRH

Apply Cream in Nostrils to Open

Up Air Passages.

not disappoint him.

marriage

and potatoes?

exception of the secretary. J. Harry Cunningham, vice president of the Lanburg and Engraving Company, was chosen to succeed C. J. Gockeler, who renounced his candidacy for re-election some weeks ago.

William T. Galliher was re-elected first vice president; William D. West, second vice president; William D. West, second vice president; Walter H. Klopfer, treasurer, and John B. Larner, general counsel.

CONTINUED FROM PAGE EIGHT.

As Howie, Dr. Dudley Morgan, Charles and Mrs. Davenport Brown, of Boston, Bouglas D. Morgan, Dr. Louis Lehr, of this city, and Miss Marie Brown. Clarke Waggaman, and Ralph Hill.

Miss Callie Hoke Smith is at the head of the young ladies' dance com-mittee, with Miss Helen Griffith as vice chairman, and is assisted by Miss Jane Gregory, Miss Lucy Burleson, Miss Sydney Burleson, Miss Josephine Mason, Miss Mary Ansley, Miss Bea-trice Clover, Miss Lillian Hendrick, Miss Carolyn Nash, Miss Ruth Patter-son, and others, Miss fda Bowle is treas-

The little girl out in Montana will ex-perience in the spring a taste of the joy I felt then.

and bridegroom were residents of this Warwick will be seen in a Shubert fea-city, where they have many friends and where their parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. erald."

Exact Copy of Wrapp

at Nashville, Tenn., on October 28 Miss Mary Thomas Warner was married t Lieut, William Thomas Mailison, U. S. N

The event was one of interest and impo tance in the social world, owing to the prominence of the couple. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mra. Percy Warner. Dr. James L. Vance read the marriage rites, and the music for the occasion was played by an orchestra. The handsome home, which showed a beautiful floral decorative effect, was an artistic setting for the pink and blue colors of the gowns of the bride's attendants and the costumes worn by the guests. The bridal party approached the altar, which was built before the large open fireplace opposite the stairway. The matron and maids descended in couples, and the bride presented a charming picture as she descended alone. She were a gown of white satin, elaborately trimmed with heirloom rose point lace. Her veil was of rose point, and the bouquet a shower of lilles of the valley. She was given in marriage by her father. Mrs. Cecil Ewing was matron of honor. She wore her wedding gown of lace and tulle. She was accompanied by Miss Elizabeth wore her wedding gown of lace and tulle She was accompanied by Miss Elizabeth Overton Lea, who were a costume of white taffeta embroidered in silver and finished with silver lace and fur. They finished with sliver lace and fur. They carried fan-shaped bouguets of Killarney roses, fastened with blue streamers. The bride's two sisters. Misses Margaret and Percie Warner, were the bridesmaids. Miss Warner's costume was of pink taffeta combined with sliver lace and tulle. Miss Percie Warner were a blue taffeta. They carried French bouquets. Lieut. Mallison was attended by his brother, Mr. Samuel Mallison, of Washington, N. C. Luke Lea, jr., and Percy Warner Lea, the bride's nephews, were the pillow boarers, and little Misses Suthe pillow bearers, and little Misses Su sanne Warner and Margaret Frager were the flower girls. The children were very dainty in white, and carried leghorn hat baskets filled with sweetheart roses, the handles of blue ribbons. The stairway was encased in Jackson vine, and six baskets of white chrysanthemums with butterfly bows of white tulle were sussended at intervals from the stair rali-ns. The altar was built of palms, ferns, d stands of ascension lilies, and lighted tiny electric bulbs, Mr. and Mrs. Warmer received the guests with Senator and Mr. Luke Lea. Mr. and Mrs. George Frazer and Mrs. Overton Lea. Mrs. Warner's gown was of white net and crystal and she carried liles of the val-A reception followed the cerem Stone, Mrs. Odenheimer, Mrs. Beverly Ing. R. Mason, Mrs. Biair Spencer, Mrs. beautiful with the decorations of lilles of R. Mason, Mrs. Blair Spencer, Mrs. Fred B. McGuire, Mrs. Theobald, Mrs. Archibald Young, Miss Weeks, Mrs. Wayne, Mrs. Marcus Weight, Mrs. Wayne, Mrs. Marcus Weight, Mrs. Frederick L. Moore, Mrs. R. S. Bowie, Mrs. William Fayne Meredith, Miss Mrs. William Fayne Meredith, Miss Mary K. Wilcox, and William G. Brantley.

Dr. Blair Spencer has with him on the floor committee William Payne Meredith, Lieut, Leigh Noyes, U. S. N.; Lieut, Foy, U. S. N.; Major Tracy, U. S. A.; Dr. Talbot, U. S. A.; Dr. Howard Hume, Dr. Breckenridge Bayne David Tennant, Pendelton Turner, R. S. Bowie, Dr. Dudley Morgan, Charles

Ingrecom, and the bridge stable was very beautiful with the decorations of lilies of the valley and jasamine arranged in a cluster of vases. In the company of friends were a number from out of town, among whom were Mrs. Overton Lea, Mrs. Thomas Tutwiler and Mrs. Ambrose R. Clarke, of New York, Lieut. Popt, U. S. N.; Major Tracy, U. S. Outhern Irip and will be at home in Pensacola, Fia.

Late arrivals at the Shoreham are Mr. and Mrs. Davenport Brown, of Boston, t became the physi-forthwestern Military land Park. Ill., and nt at Business High Unthankfulness

tance in the social world, owing to the GRATITUDE FOR MERCIES RECEIVED ENHANCE THEIR VALUE

Unthankfulness Breeds Discontent and Undermines Happiness-True Christians Accept Their Life's Experiences Cheerfully, Knowing the Lord's Measures to Be Just-They Alone Can Give Thanks in the Full Sense of the Word.

ment miserable.

True Christian people in every land and under all conditions have found pienty of cause for thankfulness, even though they have had their share, or more, of life's difficulties. Nor was this thankfulness because they had mastered the Divine philosophy and understood the WHY and WHEREFORE of the present reign of Sin and Death. They accepted their portion of life's joys and sorrows by faith, believing that their portion was measured to them by the Lord, and that full obedience and submission, with cheerfulness, was their duty.

Excuses for Unthankfulness.

We concede that the world, awakening from the sleepy superstitions of the past, can readily find many excuses for declining to be thankful. If we mention some of these, it will be rather to show the unthankful masses that we recognize their viewpoint but do not agree with it. We should point them to the better course of thankfulness and proportionate happiness.

Southern trip and will be at home in Pensacola. Fla.

Late arrivals at the Shoreham are Mr. and Mrs. Davenport Brown, of Boston, the latter formerly Miss Marie McKenna, of this city, and Miss Marie Brown.

PENN GARDENS POPULAR.

Films of Extraordinary Values Seen There by Big Crowds.

That the amusement-loving public appreciate the careful selection of photopiays is demonstrated by the ever-increasing attendance at Penn Gardens, Manager Schultz is providing his patrons with a program second to none in the with a program second to none in the word of the proportionate happiness. To their complaint that they have fewer and smaller blessings than their more and smaller blessings than their more wealthy neighbors, we remind them that the poor of this favored land habitually waste more than would make very thank-ful some of the poor of other lands. Under Divine blessing upon human skill conveniences and comforts have so multiplied about us that the "common people" of our land have home comforts and conveniences, educational facilities, parks, libraries, well-paved and lighted streets and cheap transportation such as were not dreamed of in our grandfathers' days, nor enjoyed even by the rich. Let us not greatly ask more along these lines until we have fully appreciated present blessings and returned thanks therefor.

"But," says one, "our forefathers were superstitiously thankful, and we must avoid that. They gave thanks to God me into her committee on the drating of the contrast of the co torture; for so far as we can see that teaching is all humbur.

"Intelligent people of the world have no more knowledge than ourselves respecting a future. We agree with the college professors that our race is progressing by an evolutionary law of nature; that God has nothing to do with it; and that there is no future life for us except in the sense that we, in the future, will be represented on a higher plane of living by our evolved children. You will perceive, therefore, why we consider Thanksgiving Day a piece of medieval superstition."

Beplies to the Unthankful.

Our more knowledge than ourselves respecting a future; who believes the Divine Records and who sees the Arm of Jehovah conserved with the world's affairs?

Whoever has lost faith in the Bible and its God has therefore little left except form of godliness without its power, Nevertheless, nere and there in all nations and all sects of Christendom are took of for further light, appreciating and giving thanks for every blessing, even though they do not understand the philosophy of their own experience.

Our reply to this reasoning must be along two lines: first, philosophical; sec-ond, analytical;

Replies to the Unthankful.

Our reply to this reasoning must be along two lines: first, philosophical: second, analytical:

(I) Are not these increasingly large numbers of pantheistic and atheistic every line of the properties of pantheistic and atheistic every line of the properties of pantheistic and atheistic every line of the properties at these increased in proportion as these blessings and reasonings respecting them have been received. Would not a true philosophy tell them that their loss of happiness is not due to the increased blessings, but to the improper and unthankful manner in which they have received them? Would not religion, have warned them in their own minds and in the minds of others?

(2) Let us now analyze the foregoing complaints. Who can prove that there is no living and true God—that there is merely a god of nature, a blind force? Who can explain to us the power which holds our earth in its orbit around the sun; which has given us summer and winter, cold and heat; and which has given us summer and winter, cold and heat; and which has given us summer and winter, cold and heat; and which has given us mountains and valleys, hills and plains, in pleasing variety, loaded with minerals most useful to us and merely waiting our Heaven-directed genius to bring them forth for the blessing of our race, and to make of earth the Faradiso of God?

What philosophy can prove to us that these things have bappened by chance and that we are wrong in accepting the uttereth speech and night unto night showeth knowledge, and there is no place where their voice is not heard"—proclaiming an all-wise and beneficence of our Creator were hidden from our mental view by our superstitions and irrational creeds of the past; but now, as the electric light has superseded the tailow candle, so God's Word toes of the past; but now, as the electric light has superseded the tailow candle, so God's Word toes of the past; but now, as the electric light has superseded the tailow candle, so God's Word toes of the past; but now, its beauty.

Let us not boast ourselves as possessed of so much greater courage than had some in feudal times. Let us note on the entrary, that the patriotism which obtaind the Magna Charta of our liberties was as noble and courageous as any that we have today, or more so. Our freedom from some of the superstitions of the past is the result of the spread of editation; and we must thank neither ourselves nor our forefathers for this widespread education. We must thank the Lord for it. It came upon the world despite the opposition of the rich and the indifference of the poor. God's due time had arrived.—Daniel, 12:1; Acts 3:18-21.

Montreal, Que., Nov.
21. — Pastor Russell specting the torture of the dead are abspoke here today on the subject of Thanksgiving. His text was, "Giving thanks always for all things unto God." (Ephesians 5:20.) He subject of the support of those misconceptions of the support of the support of these misconceptions of the support of the support of these misconceptions of the support of the support of these misconceptions of the support of these misconceptions of the support of the support of these misconceptions of the support of these misconceptions of the support of the support of these misconceptions of the support of the suppor all things unto God.

(Ephesians 5:20.) He said in part:

Our experiences in life are to a considerable extent what we make them. Bible attudents should be philosophers - every one of them. Why? Hecause the Wisdom from Above is the noblest science and best instruction. As St. Paul dediares, it tends to promote the spirit of a sound mind—and a sound mind is necessarily philosophera. But the reverse are not philosophers, but the reverse A sound mind tells us to take things as they are, to make the best of them rather than to quarrel over them and find fault with Divine providence and make our selves and everybody else in our environment miserable.

True Christian people in every land and under all conditions have found plenty.

True Christian people in every land and under all conditions have found plenty.

True Christian people in every land and under all conditions have found plenty.

True Christian people in every land and under all conditions have found plenty.

True Christian people in every land and under all conditions have found plenty.

True Christian people in every land and under all conditions have found plenty.

True Christian people in every land and under all conditions have found plenty.

True Christian people in every land and under all conditions have found plenty.

the numan family is in a weak and depraved condition, mentally, morally and physically, is beyond dispute; and evolutionists have not proven the Bible in error in its explanation that present mental, moral and physical weakness is proof of the degeneracy which came to our race as a result of sin. Consanguinity between the human and the age has not been proven; but if it HAD BEEN, there would be just as much ground for reasoning that an ape is a degenerate human as for claiming that humanity are evoluted apes.

In opposition to this irrational theory we note that mankind in general, even those of humble birth, have organs of the mind which they rarely use, and which cannot therefore, be said to be evolved by them; and those organs are not the lower but the higher, nobler ones. Those qualities of mind are present but dormant, merely waiting to be quickened into activity. This fact favors the Bible view that mankind are FALLEN, and that few are living up to even the best of the impaired organism which they possess.

The evolutionary theory that we should

The evolutionary theory that we should live and die simply for the advancement of future generations may prove an incentive to some; but in our judgment these will be few. Of far greater interest is the Bible teaching that the present is the NIGHT TIME, in which our friends and neighbors and ourselves, one by one, fall asleep in death; and that God's Infinite Wisdom, Power and Love have provided a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and unjust—the just to glory, honor and everlasting life, the unjust to a glorious condition very different from the present reign of Sin and Death—under the Reign of the Prince of Life, with glorious opportunities, for a thousand years of uplifting blessedness. Then everlasting life will be the reward to the faithful and appreciative.

The Thanksgiving of Christians.

St. Peter, addressing Christians, says,
"What manner of persons ought YE to be?" Similarly, we might say. How earnest should be the thanksgiving of Christians! But alas! Thanksgiving Day Christians: But alas: Thanksgiving Day, has lost much of the religious import known to our forefathers. Notwithstanding false doctrines inculcated by manmade creeds, our forefathers believed the Bible record of man's original perfection, his fall into sin and condemnation, the redemption accomplished through Jesus, and a restoration to Divine favor thus made possible. These truths constituted the foundation for a living faith in God and led them to give thanks for the har-

The Morning-Star Dawn.

VALUABLE COUPON.

Trusting that yen have been profited by the creating of the above sermon, we mention Phator. Brusell's widely read book, "PRE DIVINE PLAN," sloo knews as "MILLENNIAL DAWN," published in sinceteen languages, with a circulation exceeding 6.90.00. Its comprehensive chart of the Agra gives the mental eye a sweeping, historical view of humanity's progress—past, present and a thousand years into the future—from the Bible-standpoint. A fix sourcesic edition (400 pages), containing an (Buscrated Caspter on the First Pyramid of Egypt and its historical, religio-scientific relationship to the Divine Program, will be mailed you groundly upon receipt of Sc suith this coupon. Can you affeed to miss this literary treat. Address in ternational Bible Students Insociation, Brooklyn, N. Y.

